

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

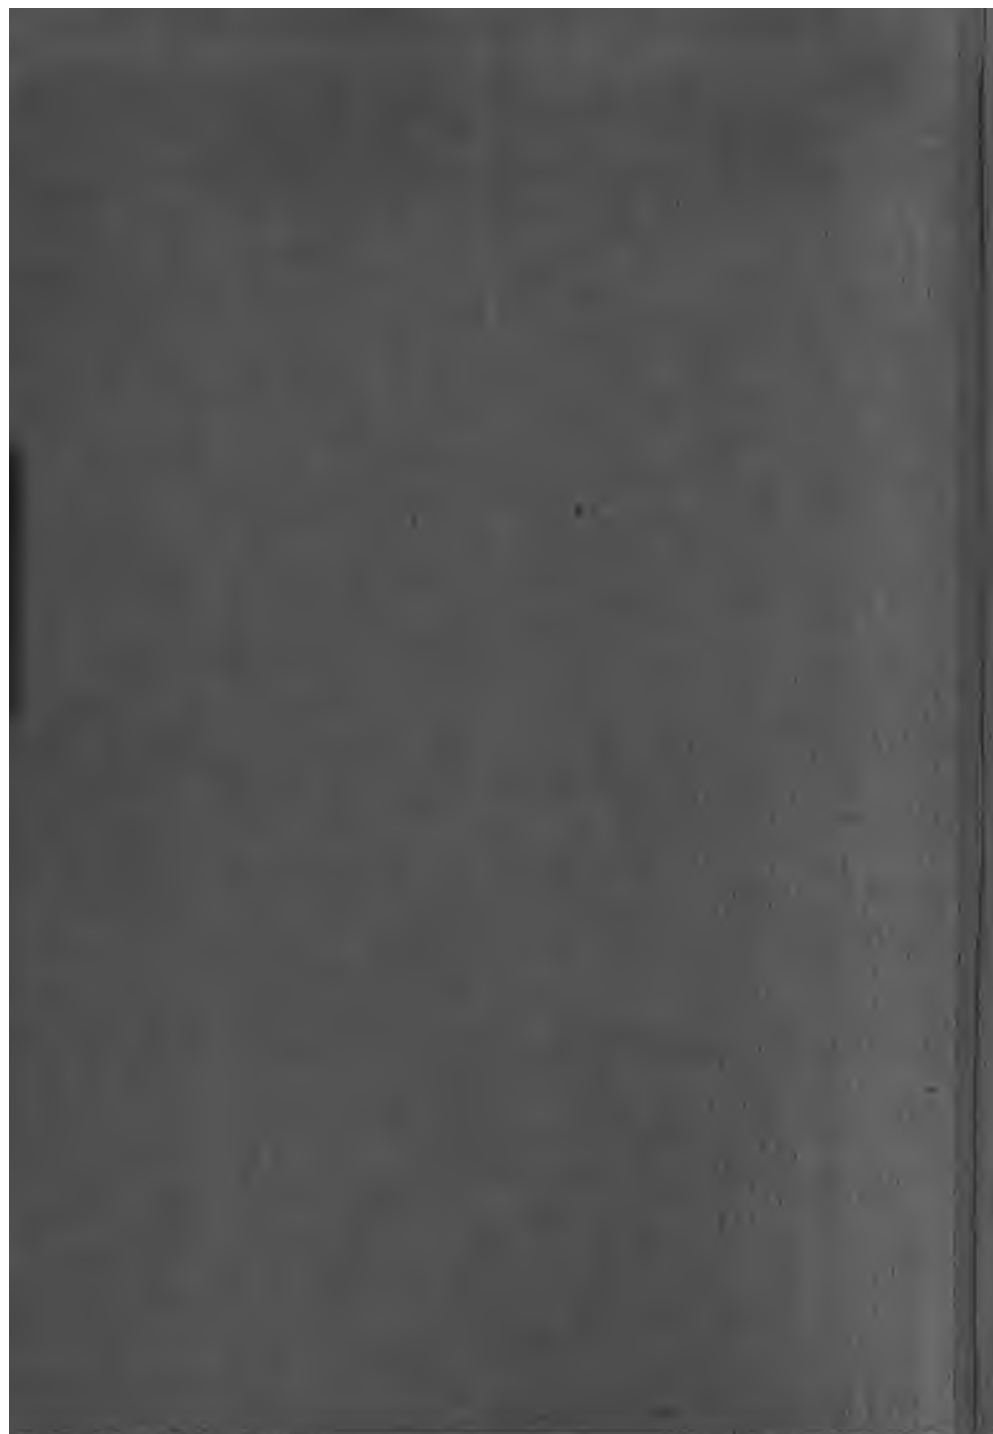

About Google Book Search

COMPILERS' NOTE

THE preparation of this Catalogue has taken all the available time of the compilers for nearly two years. No one who has not been engaged in similar work can appreciate the amount of labor represented in this book, and no one can be as conscious of its imperfections as the compilers themselves. In addition to the many circulars and blank information forms that have been sent out, nearly five thousand letters have been written. Searches have been made through files of newspapers, pamphlets, and college and seminary necrologies and general catalogues. Genealogies, as far as they could be found, have been examined in the libraries of the New England Genealogical and Historical Society, in Boston, and of the Long Island Historical Society, in Brooklyn, and in the Lenox Library, in New York. And all available means have been utilized to obtain the information contained in this volume. To the Libraries above named, to college and seminary officials, and to all others who have assisted us in our work we extend our thanks. The labors of future cataloguers will be much lightened if the alumni will keep the College informed of important events in their lives and this may always be done through the college Librarian. Hereafter the parentage of students, place and date of birth, etc., will be obtained upon admission to college and preserved for future reference.

THE students of the Medical School at Castleton, from 1819 to 1827, and those of the Medical School at Woodstock, from 1833 to 1837, received their degrees from this College, but did not reside here and had no other connection with Middlebury than as recipients of her degree of Doctor of Medicine. Their names were printed in the General Catalogue of 1890 for the preservation of the record, but it is thought that no valuable purpose would be served by repeating their names in this volume.

ANY person noticing errors in this Catalogue or possessing information that would add to its value, will confer a favor upon the College by communicating with the Librarian.

WHERE abbreviations are used in this book they are thought to be self-explanatory. An asterisk is used to mark the names of the dead. The maiden names of married women appear in parentheses and their married names in brackets. Addenda will be prepared which will contain the last word of information, and to which attention is especially called.

PRESIDENTS

REV. JEREMIAH ATWATER, S. T. D.

Appointed, 1800; resigned, 1809; died, 1858.

Jeremiah Atwater, son of Jeremiah and Lois (Hurd) Atwater, was born in New Haven, Conn., Dec. 27, 1773. He graduated at Yale College in 1793, was the youngest of his class and distinguished himself by his scholarly attainments. He was tutor at Yale from 1795 to 1799, when, on the recommendation of President Dwight, he was appointed Principal of the Addison County Grammar School. In 1800 he was appointed President of Middlebury College. He continued to act, however, as Principal of the Grammar School until 1805. Under President Atwater's administration the College grew and prospered. In 1809 he resigned his office and accepted a similar position in Dickinson College at Carlisle, Pa. After his resignation of the presidency of Dickinson in 1815 he returned to New Haven and established his residence there. His degree of Doctor of Sacred Theology was conferred by Dickinson in 1810 and that of Doctor of Divinity by the University of Pennsylvania, in 1811. President Atwater married Clarissa, daughter of Rev. Eleazer Storrs of Sandisfield, Mass., Feb. 7, 1802. Their children were: Clarissa [Mrs. O. B. Butterfield]; William; George; James Storrs; John Phelps. His second wife was Susan (Morris) Barnes, whom he married Dec. 2, 1835. Dr. Atwater died in New Haven, July 29, 1858.

REV. HENRY DAVIS, S. T. D.

Appointed, 1809; resigned, 1817; died, 1852.

Henry Davis, son of John and Mary (Conklin) Davis, was born in East Hampton, Long Island, N. Y., Sept. 15, 1771. He prepared for college in Clinton, N. Y., and graduated at Yale in 1796. He immediately accepted a tutorship in Williams College, which he held till 1798. He then entered upon the study of theology at Somers, Conn., with Dr. Charles Backus. In about six months he was licensed to preach by the Association of Tolland County, and soon after was appointed tutor in Yale, where he remained until 1803. In 1806 he was called to the professorship of Greek in Union College. Three years after, upon the retirement of Dr. Atwater, he was elected President of Middlebury College and was ordained at the time of his inauguration. Later the degree of Doctor of Sacred Theology was conferred upon him by Union College and again the Greek professorship of that institution was offered him, which he declined. Still later he declined the presidency of Yale College, but in 1817 he was elected to the presidency of Hamilton College and resigned his position at Middlebury to accept it. President Davis was especially active in the establishment of Auburn Theological Seminary and the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions. He married Hannah Phoenix Treadwell, Sept. 22, 1801. Their children were: a son who died in infancy; Henry, Jr.; Mary Ann [Mrs. Ebenezer D. Maltbie]; Charles Chauncey; Anne; Thomas Treadwell. Dr. Davis resigned the presidency of Hamilton in 1833, but continued to reside in Clinton, until his death there, March 7, 1852.

REV. JOSHUA BATES, D. D.

Appointed, 1818; retired, 1839; died, 1854.

Joshua Bates, the eldest son of Zealous and Abigail (Nichols) Bates, was born in Cohasset, Mass., March 20, 1776. His early boyhood was divided between farm labor or attendance on a country store and the ordinary schools of his neighborhood. It was not till the age of seventeen that he began his classical studies with the parish pastor and not till twenty that, after many interruptions, he was fitted for college. Having carried on the studies of the freshman year while teaching a select school, he entered Harvard College as a sophomore and graduated as valedictorian of the Class of 1800. The next year he taught in Phillips Andover Academy, and the next was a student of theology under Rev. Jonathan French, of Andover, the Theological Seminary not being opened until four years later. Licensed in 1802, on March 16, 1803, he was ordained and installed over the First Church and Parish in Dedham, Mass., as colleague with the Rev. Jason Haven. Mr. Haven died in about two months, leaving him sole tenant of the pastoral office, which he occupied for fifteen years. On the 18th of March, 1818, he was inaugurated President of Middlebury College. His administration proved honorable, energetic and wise and the result of his efforts, both as an educator and a man of affairs, was lasting. It had been his intention to retire from the presidency at the age of sixty. Circumstances, however, made it advisable that he should delay the execution of his purpose for three years, and he remained in office until after the Commencement of 1839. Visiting Washington immediately after his resignation, he was elected chaplain of the House of Representatives and acted in that capacity during the long session of the twenty-sixth Congress. The degree of Doctor of Divinity was conferred upon him by Yale in 1818. President Bates was married to Anna Poor, of Andover, Mass., Sept. 4, 1804. Their children were: Mary; Hannah [Mrs. Henry Smith]; Abby; Joshua, '32; John Codman, '33; Prentiss, '35; William, '37; Anna [Mrs. James D. Butler]; Jane [Mrs. James Cobb]; Samuel W., '43; Agnes; Daniel. Feb. 8, 1827, he married Maria Sage Latimer. By this marriage there was one child, Maria [Mrs. Joseph Warner]. President Bates settled in Dudley, Mass., in 1843, where a pastorate of ten years was ended by his death, Jan. 14, 1854.

REV. BENJAMIN LABAREE, D. D., LL. D.

Appointed, 1840; resigned, 1866; died, 1883.

Benjamin Labaree, son of Benjamin and Hannah (Farwell) Labaree, was born in Charlestown, N. H., June 3, 1801. He studied at Kimball Union Academy, graduated at Dartmouth College 1828, and at Andover Theological Seminary 1831, and was ordained by the Presbytery of Newburyport, at Bradford, Mass., Sept. 26, 1831. Before entering the Academy he had been a teacher in North Carolina, and after his seminary course he was sent out by the American Education Society to make a tour through the region south-west of Ohio to enlist young men for the ministry. In September, 1831, he accepted a position as head teacher in a manual labor school at Spring Hill, Tenn., where he resided until 1836. During the last four years of this period he was connected with Jackson College, Columbia, Tenn., as Professor of Ancient Languages, 1832-36, and as President, 1836-37. In the autumn of 1833 he was unanimously elected to the presidency of Western Reserve College, and in 1835 to the chair of Sacred Rhetoric in Lane Theological Seminary, both of which calls he declined. From 1837 to 1840 he was Secretary of the Central American Education Society at New York City, from which position he was called to the presidency of Middlebury College. His long administration of twenty-six years was an eminently successful one. The endowment of the College was largely increased by his earnest and self-sacrificing efforts. The new dormitory, "Starr Hall," was built in 1861, and promptly rebuilt after the fire of 1864. He commanded the esteem of his pupils for the thoroughness of his instruction, the firmness of his government, and his paternal care for their welfare. He labored for the religious interests of the College and sixty-three of his graduates became ministers. His devotion to his work led him to decline an invitation to a secretaryship of the American Board. After leaving Middlebury, Dr. Labaree resided at Andover, Mass., 1867-69; was acting pastor at South Weymouth, Mass., 1869; resided at West Roxbury, Mass., 1870-75; at Charlestown, N. H., 1875-80; at Walpole, N. H., from 1880 until his death. He was appointed lecturer on Moral Philosophy and International Law in Dartmouth College in 1871 and held the office until 1876. He lectured on these topics also at Middlebury College in 1874 and in 1877. He received the degree of Doctor of Divinity from the University of Vermont in 1841; and the degree of Doctor of Laws from Dartmouth College in 1864. Dr. Labaree was married in Dorchester, Mass., Sept. 29, 1831, to Eliza Paul Capen, who died in Spring Hill, Tenn., Oct. 12, 1835, leaving two sons, Benjamin, '54, and John C., '57. President Labaree was again married, Oct. 25, 1836, to Susan (Freeman) Fairbank. His death occurred at Walpole, N. H., Nov. 15, 1883.

REV. HARVEY DENISON KITCHEL, D. D.

Appointed, 1866; resigned, 1873; died, 1895.

Harvey Denison Kitchel, son of Jonathan and Caroline (Holley) Kitchel, was born in Whitehall, N. Y., Feb. 3, 1812. His education was obtained by persistent efforts and he graduated at Middlebury College with high honors in 1835. The fall after graduation he taught in Castleton Seminary and soon after entered upon his studies at Andover Theological Seminary, where he remained until 1836, when he returned to Middlebury College as tutor. The next year he resumed his studies at Yale Theological Seminary and graduated at that institution in 1838. The next year he became pastor of the Congregational church in Thomaston, Conn., where he remained until 1848, when he was called to the First Congregational Church in Detroit, Mich. His service with that church continued for sixteen years and there he confirmed his reputation as a vigorous thinker, an eloquent preacher, a strong man. In 1864 he accepted a call to the Plymouth Church in Chicago, and thence in 1866, upon the retirement of President Labaree, he was called to the presidency of Middlebury College. Dr. Kitchel entered upon the duties of his office in the fulness of his powers and for seven years administered the affairs of the College with sound judgment and thorough efficiency. In the State at large he at once took his place as a man of commanding powers and wide influence, and into the immediate college life he entered with dignity and kindness. He resigned the presidency of the College in 1873 and retired from active life though he continued to preach in answer to special calls, chiefly at East Liverpool, O., and Dansville, N. Y. His Alma Mater gave him the degree of Doctor of Divinity in 1858, and Yale the honorary degree of Master of Arts in 1865. He was a corporate member of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, 1851-89. President Kitchel was married to Ann Smith of Rupert, Vt., Aug. 20, 1838. Their children were: Harvey Sheldon; Cornelius Ladd; Courtney Smith; Luther Hart; Farrand DeForest; Stanley Rice; a daughter that died in infancy. On June 25, 1863, he married Ophelia Geer (Kimberly) Sayre. By this marriage there was but one child, a daughter that died in infancy. June 20, 1866, he married Harriet (Tyrell) Smith. His death occurred Sept. 11, 1895, at Dansville, N. Y.

REV. CALVIN BUTLER HULBERT, D. D.

Appointed, 1875; resigned, 1880.

Calvin Butler Hulbert was successor to President Kitchel, coming to the office after a vacancy in the presidency of two years, Professor W. H. Parker, senior professor, acting in the interim. Dr. Hulbert was born in East Sheldon, Vt., Oct. 18, 1827; his parents were Chauncey and Charlotte (Munsell) Hulbert. His preparation for college was made at the academies at Bakersfield and Thetford, Vt. He entered Dartmouth College in 1849 and graduated in the Class of 1853. Then followed three years of teaching, one at Swanton and two as Principal of the Franklin County Grammar School, at St. Albans. In the autumn of 1856 he entered the Theological Seminary at Andover, Mass., and graduated in 1859. On Oct. 20, of the same year, he was ordained and installed pastor of the Congregational church in New Haven, Vt. While pastor of this church in the vicinity of Middlebury, his official connection with the College began with his election, in 1866, as a member of the Board of Trustees. He evinced a warm and abiding interest in the prosperity of the College. After ten years' labor at New Haven he was dismissed to enter upon the pastorate of the Belleville Avenue Congregational Church, Newark, N. J., which he began Jan. 1, 1870. In May, 1872, he was installed pastor of the Second Congregational Church of Bennington, Vt., continuing there until entering upon the duties of the presidency of Middlebury College, in 1875. At Commencement time, 1880, he resigned the presidency and has since been actively engaged in preaching and kindred labors in Vermont, Michigan and Ohio. He is now the installed pastor of the Presbyterian church at Rome, O. In 1875 Dartmouth conferred upon him the degree of Doctor of Divinity. He has written many papers and addresses of value, chiefly upon topics connected with theology and education. President Hulbert was married, Aug. 28, 1854, to Mary Elizabeth Woodward. Their children are: Mary Elizabeth [Mrs. Edwin E. Rogers]; Henry Woodward, '79; Gertrude [Mrs. E. B. Wylie]; Archie Butler; Anne Whelock.

REV. CYRUS HAMLIN, D. D., LL. D.

Appointed, 1880; resigned, 1885; died, 1900.

Cyrus Hamlin, son of Hannibal and Susan (Faulkner) Hamlin, was born in Waterford, Me., Jan. 5, 1811. Till he was sixteen years old he lived on a farm, attending the common school a few weeks each year. January 1, 1827, he entered a jewelry and silversmith establishment in Portland. Under the preaching of Payson he became a Christian and went to Bridgton Academy, in 1829, to prepare for the ministry. He was graduated from Bowdoin College in 1834, and while in college exhibited the same mechanical skill and Christian courage which characterized his later life. In his sophomore year he built a steam engine under great difficulties, the first one constructed in Maine. He was graduated from Bangor Theological Seminary in 1837. His wish was to go into Central Africa as an explorer, but the American Board sent him to Constantinople to establish a High School and to superintend education. From 1840 till 1860 he was principal of Bebek Seminary near Constantinople; and then became engaged in the work of founding Robert College and securing a building for it. Success crowned this last effort only after the most persistent and patient labor. He was its first President and continued in this office till 1877. During his residence at Constantinople he showed his great executive power in the successful introduction of industrial activities, especially bread-making, among the persecuted Armenians and in connection with the English hospital at Scutari during the Crimean war. From 1877 to 1880 he was Professor of Theology in Bangor Theological Seminary and from 1880 to 1885 was President of Middlebury College. Several thousand dollars were collected by him with which he fitted up new rooms for a library and added many books to it, arranged the cabinets in new and spacious quarters, greatly enlarged the amount of physical apparatus, and built a boarding hall. He received the degree of Doctor of Divinity from Bowdoin and Harvard and that of Doctor of Laws from the University of New York and Bowdoin. He married Henrietta Jackson of Dorset, Vt., Sept. 3, 1838. Their children were: Henrietta Loraine [Mrs. George Washburn]; Susan; Caroline Margaret [Mrs. W. H. Vail]; Abbie Frances [Mrs. Charles Anderson]; and Mary Rebecca. His second wife was Harriet Martha Lovell, whom he married May 18, 1852. There were two children by this marriage: Clara Harriet [Mrs. Lucius O. Lee]; and Alfred Dwight Foster. On Nov. 4, 1859, he was married to Mary Tenny. Their children were: Mary Anne Robert [Mrs. George E. Ladd]; Emma Catherine; William Maltby; Alice Julia [Mrs. Edgar Hinman]; and Christopher Robert. Upon his resignation of the presidency in 1885 he retired to his home in Lexington, Mass., and there passed the remainder of his life. His death occurred Aug. 9, 1900, at Portland, Me., where he had gone for a short visit.

EZRA BRAINERD, D. D., LL. D.

Appointed pro tempore, 1885; elected, 1886.

Ezra Brainerd, son of Lawrence Robbins and Catherine (Wood) Brainerd, was born in St. Albans, Vt., Dec. 17, 1844. His early life was spent in that town, where he received his preparation for college. Through the influence of the Rev. Dr. J. E. Rankin he was led to enter Middlebury College in the autumn of 1860. He graduated in 1864, receiving the first honor, and was immediately appointed tutor for the following year. There is but one other instance in the history of the College of the appointment of a student to the position of instructor for the year succeeding his graduation. After serving for two years as tutor, Mr. Brainerd entered the Theological Seminary at Andover, Mass., where he graduated in 1868. He was at once appointed to the chair of Rhetoric and English Literature in Middlebury College, left vacant by the resignation of Professor Brainerd Kellogg, who had been called to the Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute. He filled this position until 1880, when he was made Professor of Physics and Applied Mathematics. In 1885, upon the resignation of the Rev. Dr. Cyrus Hamlin, he was appointed President pro tempore, and on April 17, 1886, he was elected eighth President of the college with which he had been so long connected. In addition to his regular college duties, President Brainerd has given much time to the study of Natural Science, and has made important contributions to the Botany and Geology of Vermont. In 1887, he was one of the three commissioners appointed to revise the school laws of the State. In 1888, he received the degree of Doctor of Laws from Ripon College, and also from the University of Vermont; and that of Doctor of Divinity from Howard University, in 1900. President Brainerd married Frances Viola Rockwell, Dec. 1, 1868. Their children are: Elizabeth DeLong [Mrs. Carl C. Plehn]; Bertha, '95 [Mrs. Charles A. Adams]; Frances Viola, '98; Ezra; Miranda Stranahan; Alice Beaumelle, '04. On Dec. 25, 1897, he was married to Mary E. Wright. They have one daughter, Dorothy.
